

Christmas Bingo Instructions

- Cut out the Bingo calling cards and put them in a bag or bowl.
- Give each player one Bingo card.
- Draw one card at random, read it out loud, and keep it aside so you don't call it again.
- If a player has the word or picture on their card, they place a marker on it.
- The first player to get an entire row (across, up and down, or diagonal) shouts "BINGO!" and is the winner.

A simple line drawing of two ice skates. The skates are positioned side-by-side, with the left skate slightly behind the right one. Each skate has a high-top boot with laces and a single blade attached to the bottom.

A simple line drawing of a sleigh or sled, oriented horizontally. It has a curved front and back, with a flat base supported by two short legs. The drawing is minimalist, using only black outlines on a white background.

Three Christmas ornaments of different sizes, each with a wavy pattern and a small loop at the top. The ornaments are arranged in a row, with the largest one in the center and two smaller ones on either side.

A simple line drawing of a person wearing a poncho. The poncho has a wide, open front and a fringed hem. The person's head and arms are visible, but their face is not detailed.

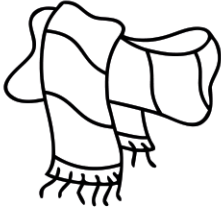

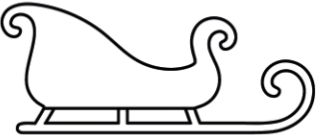

Two simple line drawings of gift boxes, each with a bow on top. The boxes are rectangular with vertical lines indicating the front and back panels. The bows are tied in a classic style with two loops and a central knot.

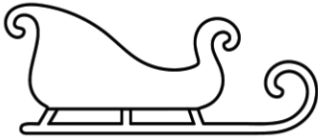

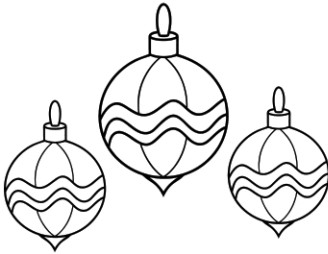

A simple line drawing of two mittens. Each mitten has a cuff with horizontal stripes and a decorative pattern on the back consisting of a scalloped edge, two small circles, and three vertical lines.

A simple line drawing of a bell. The bell has a rounded body with a small flange near the bottom. A small loop is attached to the bottom. On top of the bell is a bow with four loops and a central knot.

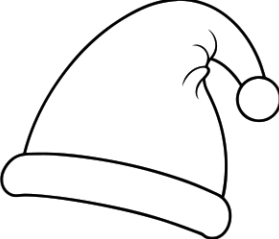

A simple line drawing of two ice skates. The skates are shown from a side-on perspective, with the blades pointing towards the left. They have laces and a high ankle support.

A simple line drawing of a sleigh, shown from a side profile. It has a curved front and back, with a flat base and a small wheel or runner at the rear.

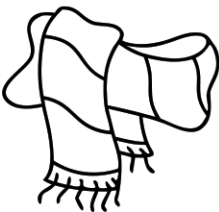

A simple line drawing of two mittens. Each mitten has a cuff with horizontal stripes and three small dots on the back. They are positioned diagonally, one above the other.
